

Funeral Planner — Free Printable

Planning a funeral while grieving is one of the hardest things a family faces. This printable gives you a framework to work through the practical decisions, so nothing is forgotten during an overwhelming time.

Key decisions

- Burial or cremation
- Venue: religious, civil or graveside
- Officiant and order of service
- Music and readings
- Death notice and announcement
- Wake or gathering arrangements

Getting support

Funeral directors handle most arrangements — they guide families through the process. The Death Cafe movement and Dying Matters offer resources for preparing in advance.

If you are bereaved and struggling, Cruse Bereavement Support (0808 808 1677) offers free confidential help.
